‘Port Edward hires New Chief Administrative Officer’

December 5th, 2023

Mayor Knut Bjorndal and Council is pleased to announce that Todd Francis will be the new Chief Administrative Officer for the District of Port Edward.

Mr. Francis comes to the District of Port Edward’s most senior executive role from his latest position with the District of Stewart, where he has served as Chief Administrative Officer. Prior to that, Mr. Francis served as Senior Administrative Officer at Fort Resolution in the Northwest Territories, and in senior roles in a number of communities in Ontario.

“We are pleased that we have been able to fill this important position for the District, and on behalf of Council and the community, we look forward to welcoming Todd to Port Edward and working with him on our many new and important initiatives.” Said Mayor Bjorndal.

Mr. Francis will be starting in his position at the beginning of January, coinciding with the start of the District’s fiscal new year.
